Special IT and excise rebate to backward States

† 2987. SHRI LAXMINARAYAN SHARMA : Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY be pleased to-state :

(a) whether Government have given special rebate to Himachal Pradesh and Uttaranchal in income tax and excise assuming them as backward States;

(b) whether such kind of rebate will also be provided to similar backward States and even more backward States; and

(c) if not, whether it would not amount to injustice to the extremely backward States of the country?

† Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI E.V.K.S. ELANGOVAN): (a) to (c) The Government announced a Special package of economic incentives on 07-01-2003 for promoting industrialization in the States of Uttaranchal and Himachal Pradesh. Under the package, various incentives like income tax exemption, excise exemption and Capital Investment Subsidy-to new industrial units and existing industrial units on their substantial expansion have been provided. These concessions were announced keeping in view that the States of Uttaranchal and Himachal Pradesh are hilly, remote and have poor accessibility to markets and also have poor infrastructure. Other backward States like North Eastern States including Sikkim and Jammu and Kashmir have also been granted a similar package of incentives.
